Scope and Content Note

The Munds-Benedict Collection consists of photocopies of scrapbooks, digital copies of photographs, and DVD copies of two films related to the history of the pioneer families of Munds, Loy, and Benedict of Munds Park, Sedona, Camp Verde, Cornville, and the general Verde Valley of Arizona. The strength of the collection lies in the detailed historical work done on the families including genealogical records, land records, and dozens of photographs of these important Verde Valley pioneers. Although the collection is all copies, the information contained is thorough and complete and should assist anyone who is interested in the early history of the Verde Valley.
