- Tour guides for adults and children
- Front desk receptionists for weekday lunches, weekends, and holidays
- Museum Store clerks
- Special events and festival workers, including gatekeepers, hospitality, set-up/breakdown, popcorn makers, and membership table
- Living History participants

We have limited need in/as:

- Archives
- Collections
- Shop or grounds departments
- Sound technicians
- Seasonal gardeners

Training Methods:

- Shadowing
- Mentoring
- Volunteer Training Classes January through April

Benefits:

- Volunteer newsletter
- Meet lots of like-minded people who care about our community and protecting the region's cultural heritage
- Interact with Museum visitors from around the world
- Opportunities to learn more about the history of Prescott and Central Arizona
- Social events designed especially for volunteers
- Access to the Volunteer Library
- Social events designed especially for volunteers
- Volunteering is just plain fun!

Responsibilities:

- Report faithfully and on time for your shifts
- Replace yourself in a timely fashion if you must cancel
- Commit to learning as much as you can about the Sharlot Hall Museum and the history of Central Arizona
